Founded in 2004, LEAD STL is a St. Louis-based nonprofit empowering youth to lead social change in Greater St. Louis through immersive learning, leadership development, and empathy building. Formerly known as Cultural Leadership, LEAD STL equips middle and high school students with the confidence, skills, and courage to lead in their schools, communities, and beyond.

Our immersive, programs engage youth in experiential learning and courageous dialogue centered in the Black and Jewish experiences and their intersections with other identities. Through this holistic approach, students build the awareness, empathy, and leadership skills needed to understand inequity and engage meaningfully across differences.

Since our inception, LEAD STL has graduated more than 800 student changemakers who continue to lead as community organizers, nonprofit professionals, educators, business leaders, and public officials. Preparing leaders who stand up, speak out, and take action.

Impact Highlights

- 100% of students report increased belief in their ability to make a difference
- 90% demonstrate understanding of core equity concepts, including racism and antisemitism
- 90% express confidence engaging in respectful conversations across differences

Our Programs:

- Cultural Leadership Fellowship (Grades 10–11)
 - A 10-month program that builds leadership skills and meaningful relationships. Through immersive experiences, courageous conversations, and a two-week summer journey through the East Coast and South, students explore history and culture and gain tools to lead positive change.
- Emerging Changemakers (Grades 7–8)
 - A 10-month program that builds self-awareness, leadership skills, and confidence. One highlight is the three-day summer Changemakers Immersion trip, strengthening learning through shared experiences and reflection.
- Camp LEAD (Grades 6–8)
 - A summer day camp with four one-week sessions focused on leadership, belonging, and personal growth. Hands-on activities and art-based exploration, campers build confidence and use their voices in meaningful ways.
- School & Community Partnerships (Grades 6–12)
